

July 15, 1977

STAT

Adm. Stansfield Turner
Director - Central Intelligence Agency
C I A Building
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Stan:

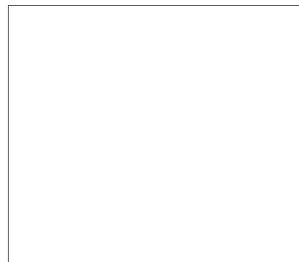

I saw an article about the CIA in the paper yesterday, and it reminded me that I had not written to express my congratulations on your appointment. I do so herewith.

The article, which started me off, was indicating some of your current problems in running the Agency your way and making changes in the way things had been done in the past. From a casual (and really uninformed) impression of what the Agency has done in the recent past, it seems to me your changes have to be right.

Again, Stan, congratulations and best wishes. It must be one hell of a job. [ ] joins me in wishing you success.

STAT

Sincerely,

STAT